CAMEO EVENT – WEDNESDAY 25th SEPTEMBER

We held our CAMEO on 25th September to mark the 30th Anniversary of the formation of Chesterfield u3a. It was well attended, with many of our groups exhibiting what they do. There are photographs of the CAMEO meeting on the website.

WHAT THE GROUPS ARE UP TO

LOCAL HISTORY

The local history talks are open to all u3a members and are held at the library lecture theatre, £3.00 on the door starting at 2.00pm.

Tuesday 1st October – Tony Perkins – Medieval Pilgrimage

Tony is a semi-professional actor, giving talks to the public and historic groups. He presents his talk in the costume of a medieval pilgrim and demonstrates the clothes of the period and items often carried by a pilgrim.

This talk is intended to help you understand a medieval person's reasons for making these journeys and to see life through their eyes.

Pilgrimage was not possible for everyone and for those who did go it was often a once in a lifetime event.

Tony speaks on the who: what sort of people would go on pilgrimage?

The where: what destinations were open to a medieval pilgrim?

The why: what prompted people to make these often quite hazardous journeys?

The how: what methods would be used to reach their holy destination?
